

QUARTER CENTURY CLUB NSW

ANNOUNCING OUR CHINESE NEW YEAR DINNER

If you were at our Chinese Dinner event last year, you will remember it as a highlight of the year. We've decided it is time to do it again. Connie & Clyde have again accepted a mission to find us the best Chef available to make us a feast to celebrate 2018, the Year of the Dog. Perhaps a little late but the crowds will be gone and the price will be a little sweeter than in the heady days of Chinese New Year.

This time, we are going to the South Hurstville Chinese Restaurant where David will be our host. Here is the menu he is preparing:

Yee Sing – Prosperity Salad with Smoked Salmon
Sweet Corn and Chicken Soup – a tasty starter
Fillet Steak with Pineapple and Ginger
Fried Rice with a mixture of special ingredients
Salt and Pepper Pork – David's speciality
Chow Mein – noodles, chicken, and meat
Stir Fried Chicken and Seasonal Vegetables
Boiled Rice
Cake, special snacks and fortune cookies
Tea and water provided
BYO drinks at no charge

Bookings can be cancelled up until Friday 9th March.

Thereafter there will be a small chance that we will not be able to refund you if we have already made a commitment to the restaurant.

The date chosen for this adventure is Thursday 15 March (an auspicious date for meeting with friends) and you will need to be there by 6.00 PM. The restaurant is on the corner of King Georges and Connells Point Roads. You can park in Allen Street or in the parking lot nearby.

You will need to book by Friday 9 March and it will cost you $40 per person. BYO drinks and there will be no corkage.

Do it now – book your seats – bring family and friends. Look forward to sharing the fun and the food with your colleagues and their families and friends
